Important Risk Disclosure

Trading in derivatives is highly speculative and involves significant risk. It is intended only for individuals who fully understand and accept the risk of short-term market fluctuations and the potential for financial loss.

Please note:

- Prices can move rapidly and unpredictably.
- You may incur substantial losses, including the loss of your entire trading capital.
- This form of trading is not suitable for everyone and should only be undertaken with funds you can afford to lose.
- No returns are guaranteed, and past performance is not a reliable indicator of future outcomes.
- The information provided is for general informational purposes only and does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation, or needs. You should conduct your own research and analysis before making any trading or investment decisions.

Before engaging in speculative trading, ensure that you fully understand the risks involved and seek independent financial or professional advice if required.
